TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Co-Managing Shareholder of Greenberg Traurig's Miami Office Will Help Expand CNB's Service of the State's Growing Technology Sector

MIAMI, FL – (April 01, 2021) – City National Bank of Florida (CNB), Florida's Big Bank Alternative, announced today that Jaret L. Davis, co-managing shareholder of the Miami office of law firm Greenberg Traurig P.A. , has been appointed to its Board of Directors.

In his role leading Greenberg Traurig's Miami office since 2010, Davis manages a team of 170 attorneys and more than 200 business staff based in the firm's founding office. His practice focuses on domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, capital markets transactions, and multi-billion dollar financings. Through his work, Davis has positioned Greenberg Traurig as the law firm of choice for companies and investors in the technology and innovation space. He represents several publicly-traded enterprises, with an aggregate market capitalization exceeding $20 billion. He is also a member of Greenberg Traurig's Global Executive Committee.

As Florida's technology ecosystem strengthens, CNB is focused on meeting the banking and financial services needs of companies, venture capital firms, and individual investors. Davis has extensive experience working with an array of technology companies, startups, life science and biotech firms, and investment capital sources. As a CNB Board member, Davis will apply his expertise to helping guide CNB's strategy of attracting technology and high growth clients.

"Jaret has been one of the most impactful members of our community and the legal industry for many years, and we are honored to welcome him to City National Bank's Board of Directors," CNB Vice Chairman and CEO Jorge Gonzalez said. "Jaret's vast experience representing clients in the technology space will be an invaluable asset to CNB as we deepen our focus on meeting the needs of technology companies doing business in Florida."

Beyond his legal practice, Davis serves as Chairman of Nicklaus Children's Hospital and is a past Chair of the Miami-Dade Beacon Council. He is also co-founder and General Counsel for the eMerge Americas technology conference. He is a double graduate of the University of Miami, earning his J.D. from the School of Law and his B.A. in economics, finance and computer information systems. In 2018, he was recognized by the Daily Business Review as "Attorney of the Year."

"What excites me about joining the City National Board is the niche they fill within the community as an iconic Florida community bank," Davis said. "The bank is both large enough to offer the resources that businesses need, while also being nimble enough to provide the concierge services and bespoke solutions to cater to their target clients. With my knowledge and experience in the technology and bio-tech industries, I hope to help the bank better serve existing and future clients in these areas."

Davis's fellow CNB Directors include Chairman Eugenio Von Chrismar, CEO of City National Bank's parent company, Bci; Vice Chairman Jorge Gonzalez, CEO of CNB; Fernando Capablanca, Managing Director of Whitecap Consulting Group LLC; Neisen Kasdin, Managing Shareholder at Akerman Senterfitt; Charles C. Papy III, Of Counsel at Duane Morris; Mark B. Rosenberg, president of Florida International University; Maria Grisel Vega, Bci Miami General Manager; Diego Yarur Arraste, Bci Commercial Banking Executive; Marcela Perez de Alonso, former Executive Vice President of Human Resources for Hewlett-Packard Company; Ronald Lindhart, CEO of Banking Strategies International, LLC; and Jorge Becerra, Emeritus Senior Partner and Senior Advisor, Boston Consulting Group.
